ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,

VICTORIA, B.C., August 15th, 1938.

PRESENT:

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "An Act respecting Pound Districts" it is enacted that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by Order in Council made public by notice in The British Columbia Gazette, constitute any part of the Province of British Columbia not within the limits of a municipality into a pound district:

And whereas under the provisions of this Act application has been made by proprietors of land in the vicinity of Rose Prairie to constitute as a pound district all that part of the Peace River Land District which may be described more particularly as follows: Sections 19 to 23, inclusive, and Sections 26 to 35, inclusive, Township 86, Range 18, west of the 6th meridian; Sections 2 to 11, inclusive, and Sections 14 to 26, inclusive, Township 87, Range 18, west of the 6th meridian:

And whereas notice of intention to constitute such part of the Province a pound district was given in accordance with the requirements of the Act, and, following such, notice of objection was made by certain proprietors within the proposed pound district:

And whereas a further notice was published requiring a majority of the proprietors within the proposed pound district to forward a petition requesting that the proposed pound district be constituted:

And whereas in response to the latter notice fifty persons qualified to sign the petition have signified their approval of the application:

And whereas the Act provides that if the petition of the majority of the proprietors be forwarded to the Minister of Agriculture, then in such case the proposed pound district may be constituted:

On the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Agriculture and under the provisions of the "Pound District Act," His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice of his Executive Council, has been pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the above-described area be constituted a pound district.

G. M. WEIR,
2945-au18 Clerk of the Executive Council.

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

"FEMALE MINIMUM WAGE ACT."

ORDER No. 46D.

THE Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:—

1. That where used in this Order the expression "fruit and vegetable industry" means and includes the work of females engaged in canning, preserving, drying, packing, or otherwise adapting for sale or use any kind of fruit or vegetable or seed.

2. That Order No. 46 of the Board of Industrial Relations establishing a minimum wage in the fruit and vegetable industry, dated the 2nd day of July, 1937, and published in The British Columbia Gazette on the 8th day of July, 1937, shall not apply to females in the fruit and vegetable industry employed in the canning of tomatoes during the tomato season of 1938, up till and including the 1st day of October, 1938.

3. That during the period specified in section 2 hereof, the minimum wage on a time-rate basis for every female employee in the fruit and vegetable industry employed in the canning of tomatoes (except women to whom special licences are issued under section 5 or 6 of the said Act), and with the exceptions provided by section 4 hereof, shall be not less than:—

(a.) The sum of twenty-seven cents (27c.) per hour for every hour up to ten (10) hours in any one day: Provided, however, that no such employee in any one day shall be paid less than the sum of eighty cents (80c.):

(b.) The sum of forty cents (40c.) per hour for every hour in excess of ten (10) hours and up to twelve (12) hours in any one day:

(c.) The sum of fifty-four cents (54c.) per hour for every hour in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one day:

Provided that, in every case where any employee's regular rate of pay is in excess of the rate prescribed in subsection (a) hereof, no deduction shall be made from such regular rate to be applied to wages due for working overtime in excess of ten (10) hours in any one day, and in no case shall the rate of pay for hours in excess of ten (10) in any one day be less than the rates fixed in subsections (b) and (c) hereof, respectively.

4. That, provided when (but not until) an employer has paid ninety per centum (90%) of his female employees in the fruit and vegetable industry employed in the canning of tomatoes on a time-rate basis at a rate or rates not less than the rates fixed by subsections (a), (b), or (c) of section 3 hereof, he may then pay the other or others of his female employees (inclusive of handicapped female employees in respect of whom permits must have been obtained under section 5 of the said Act) at a lesser rate or rates, but in no case shall such lesser rate or rates be less than:—

(a.) The sum of twenty-five cents (25c.) per hour for every hour up to ten (10)

hours in any one day: Provided, however, that no such employee in any one day shall be paid less than the sum of seventy-five cents (75c.):

- (b.) The sum of thirty-seven and one-half cents (37½c.) per hour for every hour in excess of ten (10) hours and up to twelve (12) hours in any one day:
- (c.) The sum of fifty cents (50c.) per hour for every hour in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one day:

Provided that, in every case where any employee's regular rate of pay is in excess of the rate prescribed in subsection (a) hereof, no deduction shall be made from such regular rate to be applied to wages due for working overtime in excess of ten (10) hours in any one day, and in no case shall the rate of pay for hours in excess of ten (10) in any one day be less than the rates fixed in subsections (b) and (c) hereof, respectively.

5. That when wages are paid on a piece-rate basis instead of on a time-rate basis the wages paid to every female employee in the fruit and vegetable industry employed in the canning of tomatoes shall be not less than the respective rates to which she is entitled under this Order.

6. That after not more than five (5) consecutive hours' employment every female employee in the fruit and vegetable industry employed in the canning of tomatoes shall be given at least one (1) hour free from duty: Provided, however, that if a petition in writing signed by at least seventy-five per centum (75%) of his female employees requesting a shorter period free from duty is received by any employer, he may, with the approval of the said Board, grant such petition, but in no case shall the period free from duty be less than half an hour.

7. That this Order shall be effective up till and including the 1st day of October, 1938.

Dated at Vancouver, B.C., this 12th day of August, 1938.

"MALE MINIMUM WAGE ACT."

ORDER No. 47D.

THE Board of Industrial Relations hereby orders:—

1. That where used in this Order the expression "fruit and vegetable industry" means and includes all operations in or incidental to the canning, preserving, drying, packing, or otherwise adapting for sale or use any kind of fruit or vegetable or seed.

2. That Order No. 47 of the Board of Industrial Relations establishing a minimum wage in the fruit and vegetable industry, dated the 2nd day of July, 1937, and published in The British Columbia Gazette on the 8th day of July, 1937, shall not apply to males in the fruit and vegetable industry employed in the canning of tomatoes during the tomato season of 1938, up till and including the 1st day of October, 1938.

3. That during the period specified in section 2 hereof, the minimum wage on a time-rate basis for every male employee in the fruit and vegetable industry employed in the canning of tomatoes (not included in any other Order of the Board) shall be not less than:—

- (a.) The sum of thirty-five cents (35c.) per hour for every hour up to ten (10) hours in any one day: Provided, however, that no such employee in any one day shall be paid less than the sum of one dollar and five cents ($1.05):

- (b.) The sum of fifty-two cents (52c.) per hour for every hour in excess of ten (10) hours and up to twelve (12) hours in any one day:
- (c.) The sum of seventy cents (70c.) per hour for every hour in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one day:

Provided that, in every case where any employee's regular rate of pay is in excess of the rate prescribed in subsection (a) hereof, no deduction shall be made from such regular rates to be applied to wages due for working overtime in excess of ten (10) hours in any one day, and in no case shall the rate of pay for hours in excess of ten (10) in any one day be less than the rates fixed in subsections (b) and (c) hereof respectively.

4. That the minimum wage on a time-rate basis for every male employee under the age of twenty-one (21) years in the fruit and vegetable industry employed in the canning of tomatoes shall be not less than:—

- (a.) The sum of twenty-five cents (25c.) per hour for every hour up to ten (10) hours in any one day: Provided, however, that no such employee in any one day shall be paid less than the sum of seventy-five cents (75c.):
- (b.) The sum of thirty-seven and one-half cents (37½c.) per hour for every hour in excess of ten (10) hours and up to twelve (12) hours in any one day:
- (c.) The sum of fifty cents (50c.) per hour for every hour in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one day:

Provided that, in every case where any employee's regular rate of pay is in excess of the rate prescribed in subsection (a) hereof, no deduction shall be made from such regular rate to be applied to wages due for working overtime in excess of ten (10) hours in any one day, and in no case shall the rate of pay for hours in excess of ten (10) in any one day be less than the rates fixed in subsections (b) and (c) hereof, respectively.

5. That when wages are paid on a piece-rate basis instead of on a time-rate basis the wages paid to every male employee in the fruit and vegetable industry employed in the canning of tomatoes shall be not less than the respective rates to which he is entitled under this Order.

6. That the aggregate number of male employees under the age of twenty-one (21) years employed in any plant or establishment in the fruit and vegetable industry in the canning of tomatoes at the rates specified in section 4 hereof shall not exceed fifteen per centum (15%) of the whole number of male employees of any age in that plant or establishment.

7. That after not more than five (5) consecutive hours' employment every male employee in the fruit and vegetable industry employed in the canning of tomatoes shall be given at least one (1) hour free from duty: Provided, however, that if a petition in writing signed by at least seventy-five per centum (75%) of his male employees requesting a shorter period free from duty is received by any employer, he may, with the approval of the said Board, grant such petition, but in no case shall the period free from duty be less than half an hour.

8. That this Order shall be effective up till and including the 1st day of October, 1938.

Dated at Vancouver, B.C., this 12th day of August, 1938.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(c.) To have, take, exercise, and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges, and advantages created, provided, and conferred on licensees of water and on power companies by the "Water Act" of the Province of British Columbia or any amendments thereto, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor or as an extension thereof, or by the laws of any country, state, or Province in which the Company may carry on business:

(d.) To construct, equip, maintain, and operate electrical works and power-houses and works of every nature and description, used or necessary for the diversion, utilization, holding, carrying, or conducting of water or power, including works as defined by the said "Water Act" or any such other Act or laws:

(e.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water for mechanical, industrial, irrigation, power, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used to persons or companies:

(f.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire real property, lands, tenements, and hereditaments of any tenure and of all kinds and descriptions, and any interest therein, and personal property of any and all kinds and descriptions, and any interest therein, and to hold, develop, improve, deal in, manage, rent, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber, exchange, sell, or in any way dispose of the same or any part thereof, or any interest therein:

(g.) To acquire and take over by purchase or otherwise in any way whatsoever all or any part of the stock-in-trade, plant, leases, licences, options, and agreements, and all other goods and chattels, personal property and real property, and assets of any person, firm, or corporation, or of any business whatsoever and wheresoever carried on, or which may at any time be carried on, either subject to the whole or part of the liabilities thereof respectively:

(h.) To carry on business as investors, capitalists, financiers, and promoters, and to execute and carry on all kinds of financial, commercial, trading, and other operations, and to carry on the business of promoting, establishing, administering, operating, purchasing, acquiring, disposing of, and otherwise dealing in and with financial, commercial, industrial, manufacturing, transportation, agricultural, mining, and other enterprises with a view to profit:

(i.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the lands, rights, or other property or effects of the Company, or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies and (in the case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof of the payment of interest thereon:

(j.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects or otherwise in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(k.) None of the preceding subclauses or objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted in reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.
